Edgar Thomas, a chauffeur, of Mamaronock, was arrested to-day on charges of burglary and grand larceny. According to Detective-Sergeants Mc-

On leaving the Mr. Underwood's private residence at 100 West 10th street, Brooklyn, last Sunday morning before daylight and taking the car which was purchased only a week before for $8.50.

With Thomas was arrested Frank Pavaur, of No. 15 Douglas street, Brooklyn. Pavaur said he had nothing to do with the burglary and theft, but that Thomas called at his house with the car Sunday noon and invited him to take a ride. He said he went with Thomas to the city and saw him take a couple of girls and a young man with him Sunday morning. Since then he said, he has been out with Thomas several times.

Mr. Underwood, who lives at No. 339 Washington avenue, Brooklyn, contacted the police and transferred the car and they were on the case until to-day. They learned that Thomas was taking the car about a week ago and that he was exhibiting his new machine. They went to Mamaroneck to-day and found the car about a mile from the shore.

It had ten left with orders that its red paint be covered with bright green. The license numbers on it were taken, and the police say that Thomas has made an entire confession pending his arraignment in the Adams Street Court to-morrow.

AMMON MUST STAY IN PRISON, COURT DECIDES

PRISON COURT DECIDES.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 12.—Under a decision handed down by Supreme Court Justice Keogh at White Plains to-day, Col. Robert Ammon, who is now in Sing Sing Prison for being convicted with the Alster 520-per cent. swindle, will have to serve out his sentence.

Justice Keogh dismissed the writ of habeas corpus which Ammon had sought, and held that he had been illegally sentenced and should be given his freedom.
